

authentic elderflower flavor: weaving Bavarian tradition with perfectionism and nature's whimsy

German folk legends tell of the elderflower's magical powers and the liqueur's historical origin as a medicinal elixir distilled in German abbeys. Nothing short of hypnotic, this liqueur entrances with its suede like texture and seductive blossom aroma. Its subtle sweetness accentuates the floral intensity of this enchanting favorite. The flavor of this classic elderflower liqueur has evolved out of a refinement process that dates back centuries. Rich lychee, peach, apple and buttercream aromas are complemented by bright, spicy, herbal elderflower accents and a floral mid-palate.

True to its tradition as an herbal tonic, pür•likör blossom is made exclusively from Sambucus Nigra elderflowers in accord with the seasons when the elderflowers are in bloom in spring. The result is authentically full bodied and, because it is uncompromised, available only in limited quantities. pür•likör blossom is a deep amber, herbaceous, dry style elderflower liqueur which is ideal for mixing as it complements other ingredients without dominating the cocktail. Let pür•likör blossom's versatility inspire you to create magic cocktails!
